WESTERN WAYNE COUNTY

Dear Dr. Al-Hadidi,

The Western Wayne County NAACP branch extends its sincerest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and dedication to the betterment of our county. Your profound influence and visionary leadership have been pivotal in providing the residents of Western Wayne County with the essential foundation to foster and sustain thriving, healthy communities.

Your enduring support for our annual Freedom Fund event, which channels vital funds into our scholarship program, has not gone unnoticed. This program, a beacon of hope for countless individuals in our county, empowers recipients to pursue their educational aspirations. Your involvement has propelled this initiative forward, and we are eager to amplify its positive impact even further.

It is with great esteem that our Freedom Fund Committee nominates you to assume the role of Honorary Chairperson at this year's Freedom Fund Event. Accepting this significant position is a testament to your steadfast dedication to fostering positive change.

The pinnacle of the event, the Awards Ceremony, will be an occasion to celebrate the remarkable individuals who are shaping our communities for the better. Additionally, this gathering will reflect on the rich 77-year history of activism that the Western Wayne County Branch has proudly upheld. This legacy is continually evolving as we cultivate alliances with individuals, businesses, organizations, and elected officials across the Western Wayne County area, all united in the pursuit of a just society devoid of racial discrimination.

We extend an earnest invitation for you to stand alongside us as our Honorary Chairperson this year. The theme, "Build & Thrive," encapsulates our collective dedication to empowerment and transformation. Your support in this endeavor is immeasurable, and we are profoundly thankful for your partnership.

In alignment with your esteemed role, we are committed to:

Showcasing your involvement as an Honorary Chairperson across our Freedom Fund event mailings, social media platforms, event programs, and press releases. We are grateful for your continued sponsorship of the Freedom Fund Dinner, which drives our mission forward. We encourage you to extend invitations to your cherished family, friends, and esteemed colleagues, enriching our 77th Freedom Fund Event with your esteemed network.

Your influential presence as an Honorary Chairperson will undoubtedly catalyze change and elevate the spirit of unity that defines our mission. We eagerly await your response and trust that your involvement will mark a significant chapter in our collective journey toward equality and justice.

With deepest appreciation,

Dakima Jackson
